5. GUIDELINES FOR DETERMINING MATERIALITY OF EVENTS OR INFORMATION

Events / information shall be considered as Material if it meets any of the following criteria:

Qualitative criteria would mean an event/ information:

- (a) the event or information is in any manner unpublished price sensitive information;
- (b) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly;
- (c) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; and
- (d) any other event/information which is treated as being material in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company.

Quantitative criteria would be calculated based on audited consolidated financial statements and would mean the omission of an event or information,

- a. result in a discontinuity or alteration of an events or information already available publicly; or
- b. result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- c. whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - (i) 2% (two percent) of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
 - (ii) 2% (two percent) of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - (iii) 5% (five percent) of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;

In terms of the SEBI Disclosure Circular, if the average of absolute value of profit or loss is required to be considered by disregarding the 'sign' (positive or negative) that denotes such value as the said value / figure is required only for determining the threshold for 'materiality' of the event and not for any commercial consideration.

The details to be provided to the Stock Exchanges while disclosing Para B Events shall be in compliance with the requirements of the SEBI Disclosure Circular.

Further, the Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information/ event. In order to determine whether a particular event/ information is material in nature, the 'quantitative' and/ or 'qualitative' factors shall be considered.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is clarified that if the objective materiality threshold is not met, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of the Company, the event or information is considered material.

Further, the employees who become aware of event/information as stated in this policy which exceed the materiality threshold as mentioned in this clause are required to report such event/information promptly to the Managing Director & CEO or the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.
